The Federal Lands Highway Program in Missouri. Mark Twain National Forest's Glade Top Trail is Missouri's only National Scenic Byway. The 23 mile road weaves through narrow ridge tops above the surrounding rolling countryside. Travelers are treated to numerous scenic views that reach the Springfield Plateau to the north-west and south to the St. Francis and Boston Mountains in Northern Arkansas.

Eastern Federal Lands (EFL) has reconstructed 3.2 miles of Forest Highway 54 from Highway A to Glade Top Trail National Scenic Byway. Work included improving drainage and upgrading from an aggregate base surface to a 20' wide asphalt driving surface. The existing road was inconsistent with the visitor use it was accommodating. In order to upgrade the roadway EFL adjusted the horizontal and vertical alignment.
