

Transportation Safety Contacts by State

Partnering with resource agencies is important during transportation safety planning. Potential partners are listed by state below. Contact information is provided for the state office of highway safety, state office managing crash data requests, state office for behavioral safety, and the Federal Highway Administration state division office safety contact.

In addition to the state contacts listed below, TTAP and LTAP centers may have resources to assist your safety efforts. Find contact info at: <http://www.itap.org/about/ttap.php>

This information is provided by the Federal Highway Administration (FHWA) Office of Tribal Transportation, <http://flh.fhwa.dot.gov/programs/ttp/safety>
