CONSTRUCTION UPDATE
The trail is currently open from Starvation Creek Trailhead to Wonder Creek Rest & Pause area which allows for the public to access the Starvation Creek and Mt. Defiance trail systems. There will be on going work in this section to finish up the punch list items. The trail remains closed between Wonder Creek Rest & Pause and Lindsey Creek due to railing that has not been installed along the section of trail that is next to I-84. The Contractor will begin installing the railing next week and WFLHD anticipates that they will be finished with installation in approximately 5 weeks +/-
