

MIDDLE FORK SNOQUALMIE RIVER ROAD

CONSTRUCTION NEWSLETTER

October 23, 2014

CONSTRUCTION ACTIVITIES

The Road is open this weekend from noon Friday to noon Monday.

This week the contractor worked on preparing the project for the winter including finishing sections of the roadway fill, placing rock surfacing, installing erosion control measures, and removing the stream bypass at the 588+50 bridge.

Planned project work next week includes finishing roadway fill and surfacing rock, completing work on the low water crossings, installing temporary and permanent erosion control measures, and opening the new Big Blowout Creek bridge to traffic.
